I want to take this opportunity to invite you to come experience the Adele H. Stamp Student Union — Center for Campus Life at the University of Maryland in College Park. Conveniently located to both Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, the Stamp offers a wide array of services to meet the needs of events, large and small. We have cost-effective solutions for weddings, conferences, educational sessions, trade shows, celebrations, and more.

From the stunning University of Maryland Memorial Chapel to flexible meeting room spaces, full-service banquet and catering facilities, complete professional staging and tech support, we can help make your next event a success. What sets the Stamp apart from other locations is that it is also the epicenter of a vibrant Big 10 university community, steps away from Byrd Stadium, The Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, Xfinity Center, and much more.

We actively practice sustainability processes as part of a university-wide initiative, reducing our carbon footprint and environmental impact.

Explore everything we have to offer on the following pages. We look forward to making your next event a lasting, memorable experience.

Dr. Marsha Guenzler-Stevens
Director
Adele H. Stamp Student Union — Center for Campus Life

Welcome to our vibrant community, the epicenter of the University of Maryland.

From the gleaming hickory hardwood floors at your feet to the classic chandeliers overhead, the Grand Ballroom provides a stunning backdrop for your next event. With soaring ceiling, 13-foot arched windows, crown moldings and columns, the Grand Ballroom is one of the largest reception halls in the College Park area. Featuring architectural details from a classic era of elegance and formality, the space also boasts state-of-the-art technology with central lighting, audio-visual, and temperature-controlled systems.

The adjoining Grand Ballroom Lounge (see page 13) is also available for pre-function space, buffet needs, and more.
Each year the Stamp serves as a home for nearly 1,000 college women from across the country as it hosts the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders. The layout is ideal for large scale programming while creating a small intimate feel among attendees.”

Located on the second floor of the Stamp, the Colony Ballroom welcomes guests with an expansive, versatile meeting space. Arched and round windows with spoke panes provide ample, natural light. Slate blue paint, oak hardwood flooring, crown molding, chair rails and neo-Georgian architectural details complete the space.

The Colony Ballroom features a pre-function lounge area; registration lobby vestibules; performance stage; projection screen; professional sound, film and video projection area; and full catering services through a dedicated kitchen.
The accommodations have always been first rate. The event coordinators are knowledgeable, friendly, and accessible. The staff checks in before and during the event to make sure our space, IT, and general equipment needs are met. Excellent service!

Stamp Gallery

Host a reception, educational event, or tour in this striking gallery space. Stamp Gallery is dedicated to the exhibition of contemporary art with an emphasis on the work of regional, national and international emerging and mid-career artists. The gallery hosts six exhibitions throughout the calendar year, two of which are dedicated to the work of students. The gallery also hosts an exciting Artist-in-Residence program, where artists are invited to use the space as a working studio. The Stamp Gallery supports contemporary art that is challenging and/or academically engaging and that addresses broad community and social issues. The Stamp Gallery oversees the Stamp’s Contemporary Art Collection and Contemporary Art Purchasing Program. Many of our past artists are represented in internationally recognized museum collections. Some of our more notable exhibiting artists include: Clarina Bezzola, Edward Burtynsky, Zoe Charlton, Cliff Evans, Mazen Kerbaj, Hong Seon Jang, Luke Jerram, Jefferson Pinder, Dulce Pinzon and Barbara Probst.
Art & Learning Center

The Art and Learning Center offers non-credit classes in digital design and photography, ceramics, traditional visual arts, self development, music and dance. Our classes are taught by professional artists, as well as students and staff of the University. All classes are open to students, staff, and the public and run during the Fall, Spring and Summer semesters. Private group classes may be set up with any of our instructors with one month advance notice; the hourly rate is determined by the individual teachers. The center also offers a summer children’s camp.

For Kermit the Frog, being green “ain’t easy” but here at the Stamp, it’s a part of how we do business, every day, 365 days a year. Our Facilities team holds gold-level certification in the Office of Sustainability’s Green Office program, and puts Sustainability at the forefront of its core objectives. The Stamp maintains a number of student sustainability grant-funded projects. Our green roofs serve as a living lab for students in the Plant Science and Landscape Architecture Department Student Chapter in collaboration with Professional Land Care Network (PLANET) and Green Roof Stewardship.

Stamp was among the first units on campus to implement a post-consumer compost pilot and will launch a new campaign called #GreenHacks. We provide filtered water bottle filling stations to all visitors to the Stamp on every floor. We are committed to reducing our carbon footprint and employ environmentally conscious practices in all that we do.
