

Resources on Campus

What is this?

Supervisors may need to refer students to appropriate resources on campus. This is a short list of common resources.

Campus Advocates Respond and Educate (CARE) to Stop Violence

CARE provides free and confidential advocacy services for those who have been impacted by sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and sexual harassment, as well as resources for those who care about them.

301.314.2222

health.umd.edu/care

Counseling Center

The Counseling Center provides comprehensive support services that promote the personal, social, and academic success of UMD students. Within the Counseling Center, students may seek help from the Counseling Service, Accessibility & Disability Service, and the Testing Office.

301.314.7651

counseling.umd.edu

Disability Support Service (DSS)

Disability Support Service coordinates services that ensure individuals with disabilities equal access to University of Maryland, College Park programs.

301.314.7682

counseling.umd.edu/ads

Hearing and Speech Clinics

The Hearing and Speech Clinics provide services to people of all ages, whether students, faculty, staff, or the community, who need help with language learning problems, stroke, traumatic brain injury, stuttering, voice problems, accent correction, and hearing problems.

301.405.4218

hespclinic.umd.edu

Leadership & Community Service Learning (LCSL)

LCSL engages students in leadership development and service-learning opportunities that foster transformative learning and social change. LCSL consists of five main program areas that are open to and designed for all UMD students, regardless of affiliation, major, identity, or status.

301.405.9044

stamp.umd.edu/LCSL

Resources on Campus, continued

LGBT Equity Center

The LGBT Equity Center engages and encourages the campus in building a fully equitable community. The Equity Center also provides programming that develops and empowers agents of social justice for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people.

301.405.8720

lgbt.umd.edu

Multicultural Involvement & Community Advocacy (MICA)

MICA empowers students through education on issues of race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, religion, and their intersections.

301.314.8600

stamp.umd.edu/MICA

Office of Diversity and Inclusion (ODI)

The Office of Diversity & Inclusion encourages and supports the efforts of units throughout the University to achieve their diversity and inclusion goals. ODI puts on various programs throughout the year including the Words of Engagement Intergroup Dialogue Program and Rise Above Isms Week.

301.405.2838

diversity.umd.edu

Office of Multi-Ethnic Student Education (OMSE)

The Office of Multi-Ethnic Student Education (OMSE), a unit of the Academic Affairs Division of the University of Maryland, offers a variety of services and programs to enhance the learning experience and promote the academic success of undergraduate students.

301.405.5616

omse.umd.edu

Office of Student Financial Aid

The staff of the University of Maryland Office of Student Financial Aid is eager to assist you with obtaining financial aid to help you attain your academic goals.

301.314.8377

financialaid.umd.edu

Tutoring at UMD

This guide lists university-wide tutoring services and major-specific tutoring services available to students. Some tutoring options are free to use and other services require that students pay a fee.

tutoring.umd.edu

Resources on Campus, continued

UMD Libraries

There are seven libraries located on campus that support the university in a variety of facets. McKeldin Library is the main branch of the library system and offers study spaces for students as well as books and equipment that students can borrow.

301.405.0800

lib.umd.edu

University Career Center

The University Career Center helps students make meaning of their academic experiences by assisting them with exploring co-curricular options such as internships, academic & research, international experiences, living and learning programs, leadership, and community service-learning.

301.314.7225

careercenter.umd.edu

University Health Center

The University Health Center provides high quality, cost-effective health care and wellness programs in order to promote health and support academic success.

301.314.8106

health.umd.edu

